Dear Andy:

25X1A9a This will acknowledge your letter of 30 October 1950 concerning 25X9A6 exchange of correspondence between [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]

25X9A6 Informal exploration of this matter with the Inspection and 25X9A6 Security Staff reveals that the Agency would not favorably consider intervention with Immigration authorities on [REDACTED] behalf.

25X9A6 The Agency's position is that [REDACTED] ability to qualify for citizenship will obviously influence the decision as to whether he is employed. In addition, we cannot be certain that he is not using his appointment with CIA as a wedge to gain citizenship.

25X9A6 Letters from you or [REDACTED] should discreetly advise [REDACTED] that 25X1A9a our policies do not permit intervention with Immigration authorities on his behalf, but that we do desire his services and hope that his efforts to secure citizenship will meet with success.

Sincerely,

25X1A9a
